1. Invocation and Pledge:

Mayor Bacon called upon Dr. Jeffrey Pennington of First Baptist Smyrna located at 1275 Church Street to give the invocation and lead all in the Pledge of Allegiance.

2. Agenda Changes:

There were no Agenda Changes.

3. Mayoral Report:

A. JRM Management Check Presentation to Smyrna Education Foundation

Sponsors: Anulewicz

Ms. Angie Bolton commented about the Smyrna Education Foundation being able to give $40,000 to Smyrna schools for things not typically in a school's budget over the past few years. They also have been able to connect the community with the schools, in particular the Wave of Excellence program.

She thanked the Mayor and Council for their vision and leadership in starting the Smyrna Education Foundation and also thanked Georgia Power for their initial financial start up gift.

She remarked that JRM management had been an outstanding supporter and contributor of the Foundation.

Mr. Bill Watson of JRM Management came forward to speak and noted that through events such as the Jonquil Festival and A Taste of Smyrna Festival, they are able to raise money for groups such as the Smyrna Education Foundation.

In previous years, the Jonquil Festival has raised $5,000 in contributions but this years attendance at the festival allowed an increase in the amount presented.

Mr. Watson of made a check presentation to the Smyrna Education Foundation in the amount of $6,000.

B. Proclamation in Recognition of The American Lung Association - Women's Lung Health Week

Sponsors: Pritchett

Mayor Pro tem Melleny Pritchett read aloud the Proclamation in Recognition of The American Lung Association - Women's Lung Health Week and presented it to Melissa Bowers, the Area Director for the American Lung Association. The second full week in May has been designated in Smyrna as Women's Lung Health Week.

Ms. Bowers thanked Mayor Bacon for the proclamation and spoke about her role with the American Lung Association and both her personal and professional passion for this cause.

9. Committee Reports:

Councilmember Ron Fennel mentioned the warmer weather season and talked about disaster preparedness and specifically the use of the city weather sirens. They are tested the first Wednesday of every month. He also explained the use of sirens for a severe thunderstorm watch that has the capability of producing tornadoes. Councilmember Fennel remarked that the previous weekends gathering of protestors was uneventful in terms of any incidents. Both the City and County made sure it was a safe event for all involved.

Councilmember Lnenicka always looks forward to being in front of citizens and explaining what the City's doing and mentioned several upcoming meetings he would be attending. He congratulated Dr. Mel Pender who was inducted into the U.S. Army Officer Candidate School Hall of Fame. He enjoyed being there for the honor.

Councilmember Wilkinson spoke about the event at the library she attended entitled Women Warriors. These events are held the first Sunday of every month. The Smyrna Garden Tour would be held on Saturday, May 16th. She encouraged people to attend.

Councilmember Charles "Corkey" Welch reminded citizens that Food truck Tuesdays would start on Tuesday, May 5th. Additionally he spoke about receiving several calls regarding Concord Road and the cleanup. He encouraged citizens to contact him with issues so that he can follow up with Public Works.

Councilmember Teri Anulewicz also spoke about Food Truck Tuesdays. She mentioned the event would run for 22 weeks at Taylor Brawner Park. Citizens could check the City's website and Facebook page for the latest Food Truck vendors and bands each week. She said Happy Birthday to Williams Park who celebrated with a 10 year anniversary party and noted how much they have accomplished in their community in 10 years.

Councilmember Andrea Blustein will be having a Ward 2 meeting at the Smyrna Public Library on Saturday, May 16, from 10:00 am - 2:00 pm. She was hopeful that residents from Ward 2 would attend.

Councilmember Pritchett spoke about looking forward to Food Truck Tuesdays. Last year she was unable to attend due to health reasons so she planned on being there for opening evening. She also stated that she loves the Mayors Education Awards. It was uplifting and exciting to see the gleam in the children's eyes and opined that it was one of great events the City does each year. She encouraged everyone to come out to Food Truck Tuesdays.

10. Show Cause Hearings:

There were no Show Cause Hearings.

11. Citizen Input:

Mr. Tim R. of 1115 Pinehurst Drive, mentioned concerns regarding Concord Road. He met a car on the wrong side of the road because the barrels were lined up incorrectly. The other driver was unsure of where to go.

He also had a few issues from the construction on Concord Rd. and Councilmember Welch asked him to email him with the items that needed to be addressed. He said he understood at the Town Hall Meeting that there was discussion regarding a Mayoral Debate and wanted to know if anything had been decided

Alex Backry spoke about there being 12 meetings left before the next election. He has spoken to many, many people wanting to talk about term limits and he reiterated again that they would like to see it on the November ballot. He noted that the cities of Kennesaw and Marietta were considering term limits. In his research he has found that it only costs $1000 to put an item on the ballot as a referendum. He declared that the people who pay the taxes would like to express their feelings.

12. Adjournment:

The meeting of the Mayor and Council for May 4, 2015 was adjourned at 8:18 PM.
