Mayor Derek Norton called the January 21, 2020 Pre-Council Meeting to order at 6:30 PM.

Review of the Agenda for the February 3, 2020 Mayor and Council Meeting

Mayor Norton opened the meeting with noting that Pastor Bush would give the invocation and lead the Pledge and his group the SwanSilvertones would sing a song of praise and worship during the Mayoral Report.

He noted that Councilmember Lewis Wheaton would read aloud the Proclamation in Recognition of Black History month and make the presentation.

There were no Land Issues/Zonings/Annexations.

There were no Privilege Licenses.

Item A under Formal Business was a simple apartment name change and Rusty Martin, Director of Community Development would be present to answer any questions.

Item B was a housekeeping issue per City Attorney Scott Cochran who stated that although this Ordinance referenced “Control” it was only in the sense of daily operational duties.

Councilmember Susan Wilkinson asked the Mayor if the newly formed Committee for Policies and Personnel could review the item and make suggestions to the changes.

Mayor Norton responded that his request was to have the item voted on as written by the City Attorney and have it move forward on this agenda.

Item C is the approval to appoint Ron Davis to the Downtown Development Authority. Councilmember Travis Lindley would make the motion.
