Boardmember Tammi Saddler Jones called applicant, Mr. Joshua Stephen Gracek to come forward. Ms. Saddler Jones inquired if Mr. Gracek had received, read, and understood the City's Alcoholic Beverage Ordinance and whether he agreed to abide by the guidelines. Mr. Gracek confirmed that he read and understood the ordinance and that he agreed to abide by the guidelines as well as he had completed the class. Ms. Saddler Jones asked Mr. Gracek to explain what business practices were in place to ensure that the employees would not sell alcohol to minors. Mr. Gracek advised that all employees must card anyone that appeared to be under the age of 40, the company utilized internal secret shoppers, and participated in ongoing training throughout the year.

Boardmember Roy Acree inquired what Mr. Gracek's role was with the company. Mr. Gracek advised that he was an area supervisor that traveled to 20 stores; he spends an hour at each store and supports the managers. Mr. Acree inquired if Mr. Gracek had been a registered agent before. Mr. Gracek advised he was a registered agent to 20 – 30 stores in the metro atlanta area. Mr. Acree inquired how often Mr. Gracek was at the stores. Mr. Gracek advised he visited the stores every other week.

Ms. Saddler Jones asked the applicant if he was aware that the Smyrna Police Department conducted undercover sting operations to make sure that alcohol was not being sold to minors. Mr. Gracek advised that he was aware. Ms. Saddler Jones advised that Mr. Gracek's background check did not produce any results that would impede him from receiving the Privilege License.

Ms. Saddler Jones announced the public hearing. No one came forward.

After no further discussions or comments, Ms. Saddler Jones called for a motion.
