

Luke Lantta Biography

Luke Lantta is a business lawyer with a broad range and depth of experience in the community and in the courtroom. Throughout his career, Luke has helped businesses and individuals navigate a wide range of fiduciary, commercial, First Amendment, transactional, and reputational disputes. Luke has guided individuals through contentious and collaborative day-to-day legal and business matters and has helped numerous corporations through some of the most complex legal issues of our day when tens of millions of dollars and the future of the company were at stake. Some of the most respected companies in the world and members of our community rely on Luke to advise them. Luke's pro bono practice is an active part of his law practice, and he has participated as counsel in several high profile pro bono constitutional matters.

Luke strives to anticipate problems and to help others avoid them outside of court. That is why he regularly writes on legal topics and presents to attorneys and non-lawyers alike on legal issues affecting them, their families, and their businesses. Through litigation, mediation, and even before disputes ever reach a courtroom, he has helped individuals and businesses resolve disputes cumulatively totaling hundreds of millions of dollars in dispute.

Active in our community, Luke also provides pro bono representation to survivors of family violence through the Cobb Justice Foundation and Legal Aid of Cobb County. Luke's representation of survivors of family violence earned him Atlanta Legal Aid's Extraordinary Pro Bono Service Award and his firm the Richard L. Moore Volunteer of the Year Award from the Cobb Justice Foundation. Luke is a graduate of the Leadership Cobb Class of 2016, where he received the "Legacy of Leadership" award and remains active with the Leadership Cobb Alumni Association. He is a lifetime member of the Cobb Justice Foundation and a member of the Cobb County Bar Association. Luke is also the former Chair of the Board of the Smyrna Public Safety Foundation.

Luke earned two B.A.s with high honors from Michigan State University and his law degree with distinction from Duke University School of Law.

He and his family reside in Cobb County.
